

Holt County Sentinel.

Oregon, Missouri.

FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 14, 1865.

To Advertisers.

The attention of business men is directed to the fact that the SENTINEL is the only advertising medium in Holt county, and has, in addition to its circulation in the county, a large subscription patronage beyond its limits. The advantage of the SENTINEL as a medium of reaching the citizens of Holt county, is apparent.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Notice.—Single copies of the SENTINEL, in wrappers, can always be obtained at the office of publication.

For Sale.

See the advertisement of F. Libby in to-day's paper. He offers property on good terms.

Transient Advertising.

Advertisers will please take notice that our terms for transient advertising are cash in advance, and they may expect us to adhere strictly to this rule. This rule will be made to apply to advertisements inserted for a less period than two months, and to legal as well as other kinds.

Caught and Escaped.

Grooms, the prisoner who escaped from Jail here, at the same time with Peterson, was captured at Maryville, by Sheriff Alexander, of Nodaway County, on the 4th inst., and we learn, that through the assistance of some accomplices from Atchison, succeeded in escaping from Jail the same night.

Man Killed—Accident or Not?

We are informed that on Saturday last a man, whose name was unknown to informant, living at White Cloud, was shot and killed by one JAMES PICKETT, of that place. Various reports were circulated; some that the death was the result of an accidental discharge of a pistol; others, that it was a deliberate act. We have no account that PICKETT was arrested.

Cottrell, Keesee, & Co.

Attention is respectfully invited to the advertisement of this enterprising firm in this issue. We are always pleased to welcome to our town business men of their character, and we congratulate them upon having cast their lot in the midst of one of the most fertile and growing sections of the State. We say to all, if you wish to be accommodated go to COTTRELL, KEESEE, & Co.'s. They are constantly making additions to a stock already large.

Yankee Robinson's Big Show.

This mammoth combination of shows advertises to exhibit here on Monday next. It promises to be the best thing of the kind which has been in this section for several years. We are assured that everything on the bills will be presented to the public, and no humbug. We are inclined to think all will be well repaid for attending. Their exhibitions are highly spoken of by the press, where they have been. See Advertisement.

WM.

Oregon, Mo., July 6th

For the SENTINEL.

Is It True?

Two men were arrested at Forest City, last Friday, for stealing money from GEORGE TUHAM. By some kind of legerdemain they were brought to Oregon, on Saturday, for examination, instead of being examined before the magistrate at Forest City, who issued the warrant for their arrest. When here, we learn that the County Attorney declined to prosecute, stating that he had conversed with the prosecuting witness, who would give him no satisfaction. Is it true? If prosecuting attorneys will discharge prisoners merely because witnesses, before qualification, refuse to make statements, or satisfactory statements, I opine that hereafter, under that kind of administration, there will be but little use in arresting men charged with crimes. If this affair happened as stated no one will hesitate to exclaim against the wrong. A nolle prosequi before a magisterial examination is a rather new feature in legal practice.

CITIZEN.

RAIN, CROPS, &c.—During the past three weeks, this section has been visited by numerous rain storms, just at sufficient intervals to keep crops in good growing condition, leaving, however, very little opportunity for cultivation. The corn crop could hardly look better than it does at present, while small grain will be an average crop. Harvest has already commenced. We think Mr. E. D. Scammon was the first to enter the harvest field in Atchison county this season, he having commenced on Tuesday last.—[Rockport Journal, 8th.

ALL Italy seems to mourn sincerely for President Lincoln. The students of the University of Naples, four hundred in number, have prepared an address to the Government of the United States on the assassination of President Lincoln, and have taken it in procession to the American Consulate in the town. The municipality of the same city have changed the name of the beautiful Toledo street to Lincoln street.

Marriages.

On the 4th day of July, at Forest City, Mo., by George Weber, Esq., MR. HENRY CLAY COLLINS, of Holt county, Mo., to MISS POLLY ANN PRESSMAN, of Fremont county, Iowa.

On the 29th day of June, in Dallas Township, by James Mages, Esq., GEORGE W. FITZWATER, to MISS FRANCIS E. MULLINS, all of Holt county, Mo.

On the 25th day of June, in Dallas Township, by James Mages, Esq., MR. ZEBEDEE SMITH, to MISS ELIZABETH SMITH, all of Holt county, Mo.

Obituary.

At the residence of his son David, near Oregon, Mo., on the 11th inst., MR. JAMES POLLOCK, in the 86th year of his age.

The deceased was born near Philadelphia, Penn.; was married at the age of 21; removed to Ohio in 1822; thence, in 1850, to Indiana; thence, in 1863, to Holt county, Mo., where he remained until date of death. Mr. POLLOCK was one of those venerable men who had come down to us from a former generation. He was credited among the stirring scenes of the Revolution, and was as old as our government, to which he was so ardently attached. He was blessed with remarkably good health all his life long. He was of a very social and genial disposition; a kind husband and father; an obliging neighbor; and last, but best of all, his silver locks were a crown of glory, having been found in the way of righteousness. At the early age of eighteen he united with the Presbyterian church, and for three score and seven years adorned that profession by a godly walk and conversation. Not long before he died he expressed to the writer a willingness, yes, even a longing to be with Christ; which to the Christian is always far better than remaining here. And shall we not hope and believe that while the nation was celebrating the anniversary of its freedom with songs of mirth and rejoicing, heaven also rejoiced as another spirit was delivered from the bondage of corruption, and was introduced into the glorious liberty of the ransom of the Lord, who shall return and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads? "O, let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his." N. H. R.
